

ConneXions Commitment

I understand and agree that ConneXions is a full time commitment and is a demanding time of growth and testing. I will be fully engaged in it.

I understand and agree that I will not obligate myself to an employer, full or part time; that the responsibilities of my activities with ConneXions could not be fully met if I took on the added responsibilities of any kind of job commitment (other than Monday's).

I understand and agree that while I participate in ConneXions, I will entirely abstain from any actions, thoughts or emotions that could possibly lead to pairing off with a person of the opposite gender.

I understand and agree that while I participate in ConneXions, I will not be a part of any sports team; doing so would obligate me in a way that would conflict with my commitment to ConneXions.

I understand and agree that I must put away from my life all forms of ungodly entertainment. Further, I agree that watching certain movies would be a distraction from the goal of the transformation of my life.

I understand and agree that punctuality is an expression of my character. Without exception, I will not be late for any ConneXions events.

I understand and agree that ConneXions is an entirely serious commitment for those who are entirely serious about God.

In summary, I will refrain from anything that would in any way distract from total focus on ConneXions.
